

Important People

Nelson Mandela

- Nelson Mandela was born in South Africa.
- He didn't think his country was fair.
- He protested but got arrested.
- He was jailed for 27 years.
- He received the Noble Peace prize.
- He became the first black president of South Africa.

Map of the Africa

Lila and the Secret of Rain - Story

For months the sun has burned down on Lila's village. It is too hot to gather firewood, or even weed the garden. It is even too hot to milk the cow. Without rain the well will run dry and the crops will fail. Lila is so worried that when her grandfather whispers the secret of rain to her, she sets off to talk to the sky herself.

Timeline of Nelson Mandela's Life

Nelson Mandela was born in South Africa

Mandela joined a political party.

Nelson Mandela became a lawyer.

Mandela was arrested again for protesting.

Mandela was sentenced to life in prison.

Nelson Mandela released from prison.

Mandela wins Noble Peace prize for his push for equality.

He becomes president of South Africa.

Nelson Mandela died.

1918

1944

1954

1962

1964

1990

1993

1994

2013

African habitats

desert

savannah

rainforest

coastal

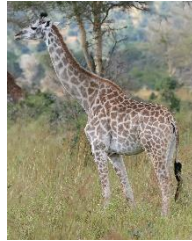

PSHRE / Growth Mindset

helping fairness kindness community sharing supporting togetherness teamwork justice

Science - African animals

The African penguin, also known as the Cape penguin, and South African penguin, is a species of penguin confined to southern African waters. Like all penguins, it is flightless.

The giraffe is an African artiodactyl mammal, the tallest living terrestrial animal.

The Cape cobra, also called the yellow cobra, is a moderate-sized, highly venomous species of cobra inhabiting a wide variety of biomes across southern Africa including arid savannah, desert and semi-desert regions

The brown banana frog, also known as the striped spiny reed frog. It is an amphibian.

The Cape needlefish is a species of needlefish found in waters around South Africa. This species grows to a standard length of 35 cm

Key Vocabulary

Habitat – A habitat is a home for an animal or plant.

Carnivore – A carnivore is an animal that eats meat.

Herbivore – A herbivore is an animal that eats plants.

Omnivore – An omnivore is an animal that eats both meat and plants.

Reptile – Is a cold blooded animals that has scales or bony plates. They lay eggs on land.

Bird- They have a backbone, have feathers and lay eggs.

Amphibian – They lay their eggs in water, and can live on land and in the water.

Mammal – They are warm blooded and have fur or hair. They give birth to live babies.

Fish - a limbless cold-blooded animal with gills and fins living wholly in water.

Humid – it will be very hot and wet, like a swimming pool.

Arid – very dry

Equator - is an imaginary circle around Earth. It divides Earth into two equal parts: the Northern Hemisphere and the Southern Hemisphere.